

Tamia Dow, Chaplain

My name is Tamia Dow and I have been the IAWP Chaplain since 2006. I am a retired Detective from the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department (USA). I am an ordained minister. I am a Life Member of the IAWP. I have attended every annual training conference since joining before Birmingham, UK in 1996.

It is an honor to be your Chaplain. I enjoy meeting and talking to you at conferences and via email. I am available on email at ChaplainDow@yahoo.com. I have a blog entitled Chaplain Dow on the IAWP website that I update regularly. I can be found on Facebook just search Chaplain Dow. I can be followed on twitter @Chaplain Dow. On the IAWP website there is also a section called Chaplain's Corner. In this section I have posted prayers and memorials for IAWP members who have passed away. I encourage your input into all these forms of communication. If you have examples of prayers or inspirational sayings please forward them to me.

I have founded a law enforcement prayer group which prays for the women and men in law enforcement worldwide on a weekly basis. Please send me your prayer request. I would also like to hear about milestone events like retirements, weddings, births and adoptions. You would be surprised how encouraging your story is to other IAWP members.

Whether it's a health concern or job concern you can contact me with it and know it will remain confidential. I am your Chaplain and am here for you. I look forward to another successful three years. Stay Safe.
