

DEPUTY COMPTROLLER - GENERAL
MRS. JUDITH DZOKOTO LOMOH

Deputy Comptroller-General (DCG) Judith Dzokoto-Lomoh has risen to the position of the DCG of Immigration In charge of Finance and Administration. She stands tall as one of the top four officials of the Ghana Immigration Service (GIS).

She stands out as a seasoned Expert in Migration and Gender issues, also a strong female leader having served on so many Boards.

Mrs Dzokoto-Lomoh had headed several Units including the Processing Section, the American Section, the African Section, Visa Permit Application Centre and Work Permit. She has also had worked in the region as third-in-command at Western Regional Headquarters and the Kotoka International Airport.

Her passion is on issues bothering women and children which has influenced her to be dedicated in assisting a lot of women to attain a greater heights through empowerment and she succeeded in affiliating the Immigration Ladies with the International Association of Women Police (IAWP) thereby bringing dynamism and professionalism into the Association.

She is focused on promoting and creating a gender desk in all the Ghana Immigration offices to empower the women to take up higher positions.

In this pandemic era she has been able to create more awareness among a lot of women including the faith based organisation to keep safe.

She is principled and hardworking. She believes and practices transparency, accountability, fairness, and teamwork.

Mrs Dzokoto-Lomoh has seen a bit of the world having had the opportunity to share and discuss issues on migration, leadership, governance, change management, financial management, gender, women and children's rights on International Platforms in part of Africa, the Middle East, Europe and North America.

Interested in self-development, Mrs Dzokoto-Lomoh pursued graduate courses in Public Administration and Project Management and obtained a Master's Degree in Governance and Leadership.